On behalf of the ORACLES TA1 team, I acknowledge that we approve the release of IR1 under any liberal license agreed upon collectively by the SIEVE performers. We also grant a world-wide, non-retractable, royalty-free license for anyone to use the IR spec, and we will not enforce any copyrights or patents that we might hold that pertain to the spec.

😀

Please also acknowledge that you or your organization grant world-wide/non-retractable/royalty-free license to any patents and copyrights to any materials which might be present in the IR Spec.

See ZK Proof and OSI OSR for more info on patents

We intend to release the IR Spec as CC-BY 4.0

For further clarification, acknowledgement of this release applies only to the IR Spec v1.0.1. Future spec revisions and any IR implementations are not being released at this time, and would require separate review.

On behalf of the PROVENANCE team, I acknowledge that Cybernetica has not significantly contributed to IR Spec v1.0.1, hence we're alright with it being released. No patent / copyright encumbrance.
